

2 events to celebrate the return of Joan of Arc to the Parkway!

Thursday, April 22nd

Philadelphia Art Museum

Benjamin Franklin Parkway & 26th Streets

Monday, May 3rd

Spring Mill Cafe

Barren Hill Road, Conshohocken

No.1 : Thursday, April 22

2pm

MAIN BUILDING, PHILADELPHIA ART MUSEUM

Guided tour of Renowned EUROPEAN ARMS & ARMOR COLLECTION including recent acquisition of early Renaissance horse and man armor

3pm

MUSEUM TROLLEY (BOARD VEHICLE AT ENTRANCE) RIDE ACROSS STREET TO PERELMAN BUILDING

Champagne reception and cakes

4pm

IN FRONT OF PERELMAN BUILDING

Unveiling of restored bronze Eugène Frémiet sculpture of Joan of Arc
Remarks from Philadelphia Mayor Nutter,
Philadelphia Public Art Director Margot Berg and French Heritage Philadelphia Chairs Julia Ward & Valérie de Condé

---

No.2 : Monday, May 3

7pm

The Joan of Arc Celebration continues...

Three-Course Dinner with wine:

THE SPRING MILL CAFE

Barren Hill Road, Conshohocken

"What would be served if Joan of Arc were to dine at the Elysée Palace today?"

Michelle Haines, Spring Mill Cafe owner and French Heritage Society member, will demonstrate preparation of this historic and sumptuous meal. Valérie de Condé, French Heritage Philadelphia Co-Chair, will introduce the delicious french WhisperWine which will be served with dinner.